Newport College Students Chosen to Participate in State Internship Program

Newport College students Ms. Barbara Kivlehan and Mr. Mark Lynch have been selected to participate in the Rhode Island State Government Internship Program.

This program is a joint effort involving the State Legislature and the participating institutions of higher education, and its aim is to enable students to develop knowledge of the structure and procedures of State Government.

The Governor, Legislators, Judges, Lobbyists, faculty members and journalists will be meeting with the students. Each student will serve for a 12 week period during the Spring semester. Senator Robert J. McKenna of Newport introduced the original legislation to create the Commission on State Government Internships. He presently serves as the Chairman of the Rhode Island State
